

LBS Financial Credit Union Co-Hosts Cerritos Blood Drive

Cerritos, CA – November 30, 2005 -- LBS Financial Credit Union (“LBSFCU”) co-hosted a blood drive in Cerritos on November 29-30 with Albertsons, providing the local Red Cross with blood to help the lives of ninety people.

The blood drives were held at separate locations. On November 29, Albertsons hosted the event at their location on Norwalk Boulevard and on November 30, LBSFCU hosted the event at their South Street location.

There were approximately sixty community participants that gave blood during the two-day drive which will be used to help the lives of up to ninety people.

“This was our first year supporting the Red Cross with a local Blood Drive in the Cerritos area,” stated LBSFCU President and CEO Jeffrey A. Napper. “We were very pleased with the overall community support and would like to thank everyone that participated.”
